Abstract of the topic :

The concept of entrepreneurship was first established in the 1970 centuries and the meaning has evolved ever since. Entrepreneurial development today has become very significant. Entrepreneur is ordinarily called as businessman or sole trader but on entrepreneurship entrepreneur is a person who runs the business. There are so many unemployed youth both in rural and urban areas are not still employed but they are seeking for employment. Rural areas are not developed like urban area due to lack of infrastructural facilities. If the rural youth will be employed they will be self employed and will create so many employment opportunities for others.
