SEMINAR REPORT

Dt. 15-11-2019

The seminar on the topic "Problems of Child Labour and its possible solutions" held on 15-11-2019 focuses on various issues of Indian economy like poverty, illiteracy, unemployment etc. which are the root cause of child labour. It simply ruined the future of kids.

40 number of students were present in this seminar and 8 students presented papers on this topic as well as participated in the questions put by the other students. The eloquent speech of the resource person Prof Ratnakar Mohapatra, Lect-in-Eco, Khairia college, Khairia, on the issue, no doubt helps students to know about the causes and effects of child labour in our country. Realizing its consequences, the remedies in this context is badly needed, which needs social consciousness and strong political willingness of enforcing law to prevent child labour.

Faculty members and other dignitaries of different dept. of humanities present in the dept were also shared their views relating to this important subject linked with political, social and economic issues of the country. No doubt, this seminar enriched the knowledge of the department students a lot.

Ratnakar Mohapatra.
