Seminar Report

17-11-22

The Seminar topic "MSME and Rural Employment" chosen by this department is a unique one held on 17-11-22. The Potent talk of Resource Person Dr. Gopabandhu Mohapatra, Reader-in-Eco, Khairia College, Khairia was very brilliant. He elaborated the concept from "Small is Beautiful" that it is large industry which needs large investment but provides less employment. But it is small and micro industry which needs less investment, uses local manpower and resources and as such plays a vital role for generating vast employment. In this context the resource person focused on various aspects of MSME and stressed its growth as the govt also emphasises on expanding the number of MSME.

38 students attended the meeting and 10 of them presented the paper.

This Seminar teaches the participants not to be mere employee but to become employers. Actually, this topic is the need of the present day economic scenario.
